#21D0L 20th Night

For God, there's nothing in this world I wouldn't do.

For me, there's absolutely nothing in the heavens nor on earth or anywhere else I don't even know exists that HE wouldn't do.

I love you God, but human me has me erring every now and then, but I suppose you'd cackle now God, and reply: "really? boy, humour me, same thing your brothers saying you know, what is it you want or need that I haven't made providence for?"

And he's right brother,

HE pulled strings for us you know, what else do you called chipping Grace into the equation, something the devil is exempted from

But we find it hard to even string just the guitar for him, we'd rather rock 'n' roll fellowshiping with demons.

What else do we want? HE gave us salvation, something the ruler of the world can not afford.

My poetic lines flee me sister, for you find worshipping in the Lord's house boring but you ace the lyrics of another like you, you'd sing "gimme something light" endlessly while you neglecting same omnipotent being that has made you the light of the world.. oh your acts makes me let a heavy sigh off.

I can't say much dear, but HE has missed you so much, it's been years. How about you try make up with HIM everyday with just 10 minutes out of the hours you make up with?

Say Amen, Say A Prayer, Say Amen again, been so long even if you keep the prayer short, heaven will scream hallelujah.

Jesus Loves You, but then you breathing so I guess you already know.
